The Coalition for Citizen Diplomacy, a group of leaders from the non-profit, business, academic and exchange communities in the US, has launched a national campaign to increase the ability of Americans to engage with the global community through international dialogue and exchanges. At the forefront of the campaign is a series of Community Summits being held across the United States, which will culminate in a National Summit on Citizen Diplomacy in Washington, D.C. in July 2006.

Join us for the summit to help raise public awareness of international interest!
